Incident:

At app. 3:15am on Friday 9 January 2009, an Israeli jet plane fired a missile at the two-storey house of Fayiz Nour Salha, which is located near Ar-Rebat mosque west of As-Salama Charitable Institution east of Beit Layia Mashro'u. The Salha family was hosting another family of their relatives, who had evacuated their house due to the Israeli military operations in North Gaza district. Six persons were killed in the attack; all of them are children and women. Al Mazan Knew their names as follows:

- Randa Fayiz Mohammed Salha, 33, and her children;
- Diya Ad-Dein Fayiz Nour Salah, 14;
- Baha' Ad-Dein Fayiz Nour Salha, 4.5;
- Rana Fayiz Nour Salha, 12;
- Rolla Fayiz Nour Salha, 1; and her aunt
- Fatma Fayiz Mohammed Salha, 22.

According to Al Mezan's field investigations, ten minutes before this attack an Israeli reconnaissance drone launched a missile at the house. All the family woke up and decided to leave the house after calling the father who was at his work at UNRWA school. The family decided to split into two groups afraid that Israeli warplanes would fire at them if they noticed a large group of people walking in the street. The first group left. Few minutes later, the second group followed them. They were at the stairs and the entrance of the house when an Israeli warplane bombarded the house and killed the second group. Six persons were killed and their bodies were dismembered as the house was completely destroyed.
